LOCAL MATTERS.

For the Middle Atlantic States cloudy or far weather, as terly veering to warmer coutherly wints, with falling baremeter.

A. Ornox. - The local option question -ull the topic of discussion on the streets.ame maintain that such a law will prove a meat injury to the business of the city, while thers hold that it will be a great benefit. The discoutes of the bill say that if the cost of a special election is any obstacle to the pasage of the bill by the Ligislature, they will ar the entire expense. Petitions were again in in circulation, and numerously signed. Last had over a thousand voters, who were in favor at submitting the question to the people. M. Harlow, esq., who went to Richmond a company with Mr. E. E. Downham, Monday merning, returned last night, and reoris that the impression in Richmond is that the bill will not come up, but it is does it will not past. Mr. Downham remained in Richmond. l'etitions against the passage of the bill were in circulation this morning, and those opposed to the till claimed that, - while their petitions were probably not as numerously signed as the princes favoring it,—they had the largest number of tax payers and business men. The temperates men my they are ready to meet the sati-lemperance men in argument at any time, and claim that they can preince fees and figures that will completely overwhelm them. The impression seems to prevail among all parties that the bill will not he seed upon at this session of the Legislature, but the efforts to secure signers, both for and against it, increase rather than decrease.

THE NEW TELEGRAPH LINE -The Ameriam thainn Telegraph Company, which will estableh an office in this city, in a short time, cluded an arrangement with the Rich-Prederickburg and Potomac Railroad rick to Richmond. The superintendent of the Church. heraph u-inpany says that the construction the new ide will proceed from Quantico to gunds Washington and Richmond, and that an the will be established in the latter city inside a thirty day. Major Cole, the company's gent, says that the establishment of an office a this cay will be a great benefit to business ien, as the company's rules will be very law. When the war commences between the two impinics-Western Union and American lama-which is sure to come, then cheap relegraphy may be looked for.

APPOINTED. -- It will be seen by reference to the court proceedings that Judge A. W. Chitten, appointed to day Francis M. Husfor Commissioner in Chancery of, and Commissioner of Accounts in the Corporation Court. Mr. Hunter, who is a resident of Fair lax county, is an attorney licensed and practic ing law in Washington, and has just been admitted to practice law in this city. It is underout that S. G. Brent, e.q., Commonwealth' Atterney, will, at the proper time, move against the appointment on the ground that the law anly allows the court to appoint a non resident to the position when it appears that there is an resident of the city to discharge the duties

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES, - The mission which manmene d in St. Mary's Church on Sanday had is attended by large crowds, especially at rich. R.v. Father Glockmeyer, et New Tark, presched again last night to a packed durch. He commerced his sermon by paying the people of Alexandria a compliment, stating hat suce he arrived in the city he had not heard any blast hemous or obscene language which one is accustomed to hear recasionally in other cities. He then took his text, and presched an able and elequent sermon. Services will be held in the church every day during the week, at half past seven and pine o'clock a. m. and at half past seven p. m., liev. Father clockmover presching at the nine a. m. and half past seven p. in, services.

RELEASED, -J. C. Decker, who was senlenced to pay a fine of $75 for selling I quor to minors, and give security for good behavior, by the last term of the Corporation Court, and in default of the payment of said fine sent to ad, was released yesterday evening by Judge Chilton upon the payment of the fine and costs, amounting to one hundred and twelve dollars. He could not give bond for good behavior, but upon the forfeiture of his license to sell i quor that part of the senterer was revoked, and he, to day is er joying his liberry for the first time for one month.

FIGHT AT FISHTOWN .- Fishtowe, which has been descried since the last season, is beginning to have the appearance of life again. The ccm mencement of the season there this year, was bened with a fight yesterday evening. Celebration of the First Centennial of the United Senate City of Alexandria, Virginia.

The initial equipment of the City of Alexandria, Virginia. of April, is said to be incorrect. Mr. Penick, who has been paster of the church for a long time, is held in high esteem by the prople to whom he has broken the bread of life, and the citizens in general. He would be greatly missed from the community, and it is hoped he may long remain in charge of his present congrega-

VISITATION .-- Mr. D. B. Woodruff, of Georeia, Supreme Chancellar of the world, visited Mechanie's Ladge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, last night, and exemplified the work of the unwritten order, after which he made a spetch, in which he stated that the order was in a very flourishing condition, and that it was increasing in membership all over the world. The reports from the Grand Lodges of the United States show that the order in this country is progress. ing rapidly.

Cow and Call Recovered. -Mr. Johnsthan Pierpoint, who bought a cow and calf last week and lost it two hours after the purchase was made, recovered the stolen aminals in a stable belonging to a negro. near Convalere int Camp, Sunday morning. How they came there the man could not tell, but denied having stolen them. Mr. Pierroint being will satisfied with the recovery of his property, made no further erquiries.

Mr. Cex, of N. Y., chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs reported back the resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information as to what measures should be taken for the frequent publication and circulation of the commercial reports received by the State Department from Diplometic and Consular officers of the United States. Adopted.

The moroing hour, was, on motion of Mr. Blackburn, of Ky., dispensed with and Mr. Blackburn then moved that the House proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee of the Whole on the subject of the revision of the rules. He stated that it was his intention to immediately demand the previous quastion.

Mr. Conger inquired whether Mr. Biackburn would allow a yea and usy vote upon an amendment striking out from rule 21 the proviso allowing political riders on appropriation bills. On receiving a negative answer Mr. Conger stated that if he understood the temper of his side of the House they would have a vote upon it or they would remain silent for a month or two months to prevent a vote being taken upon the rules. Mr. Blackborn stated that he was seling under authority of the Committee on Rules. Mr. Conger called upon the republican mem bers of that Committee to state whether they had agreed to demand the previous question. Mr. House, of Teno., asked Mr. Bisekburn to yield to bim to offer an amendment allowing individual members in case their bills are not reported from the committee within 60 days to move to suspend the rul s and pass the buls. Mr. Blackburn, however, declined to sield. Mr. Frye stated in reply to Mr. Conger that he bad agreed to the ordering of the previous question because he was confident that if the rules were again thrown open to amendment and debate amendments affecting the tailf and the internal revenue would be offered. Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, in giving his rea sons for agreeing that the previous question should be demanded mated that he understeed though without authority that the lemocrats bad retained rule 21 promising some of their colleagues that if they voted to retain it, no political riders would be put on at this session. The democratic party had gained an apparent victory with the reality Mr. Blackburn, in reply, omphatically denied that any such agreement as Mr. Garfield alluded to had been entered into
